A Note from Mrs. Protzman:

How quickly the first week of school passed. We are quickly getting into our schedule and classroom routines. The children are doing a wonderful job of following the classroom rules and participating. I always enjoy seeing children make new friends and we have a very nice group of children this year. Please work with your child at home on name recognition or writing their name. If you wanted your newsletter emailed to you and did not receive it, please email me so I can add you to my mailing list.
